

Psalm 38:13-14 But I, like a deaf man, do not hear; And I am like a mute who does not open his mouth. Thus I am like a man who does not hear, And in whose mouth is no response.

In the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit, one God.
Amen.

Begin with the Lord's prayer

Our Lord and Savior, our King and God,
we thank you for gathering us here to stand
before you to call on your Holy Name.

Heavenly Father, teach us to trust You in everything we do. Our God open our eyes, ears, hearts and minds that we may hear Your Word, keep it in our hearts and tell our friends about your glory and honor.

Bless all the children and keep them safe.
Hear us when we humbly and thankfully pray
to you.

Our Father, who art in heaven
Hallowed be thy name,
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done
On earth as it is in heaven
Give us this day our daily bread
And forgive us our trespasses
As we forgive those who trespass against us
And lead us not into temptation
But deliver us from the evil one
For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the Glory. Forever, Amen.

O our Lady, as St. Gabriel greeted you, “Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you.” True Virgin in conscience as well as body, blessed are you among women and blessed is the fruit of your womb.

Holy Mary, the God-bearer, pray that your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, may forgive us our sins. Amen.

Say The Jesus Prayer 3 times
Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God,
have mercy on me, a sinner.

Saint Mary of Egypt

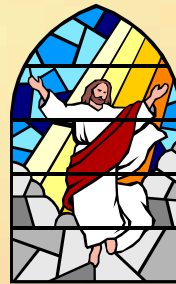

October 5, 2014

Memorize today's Verse

“Blessed is he whose transgressions is forgiven, whose sin is covered.”

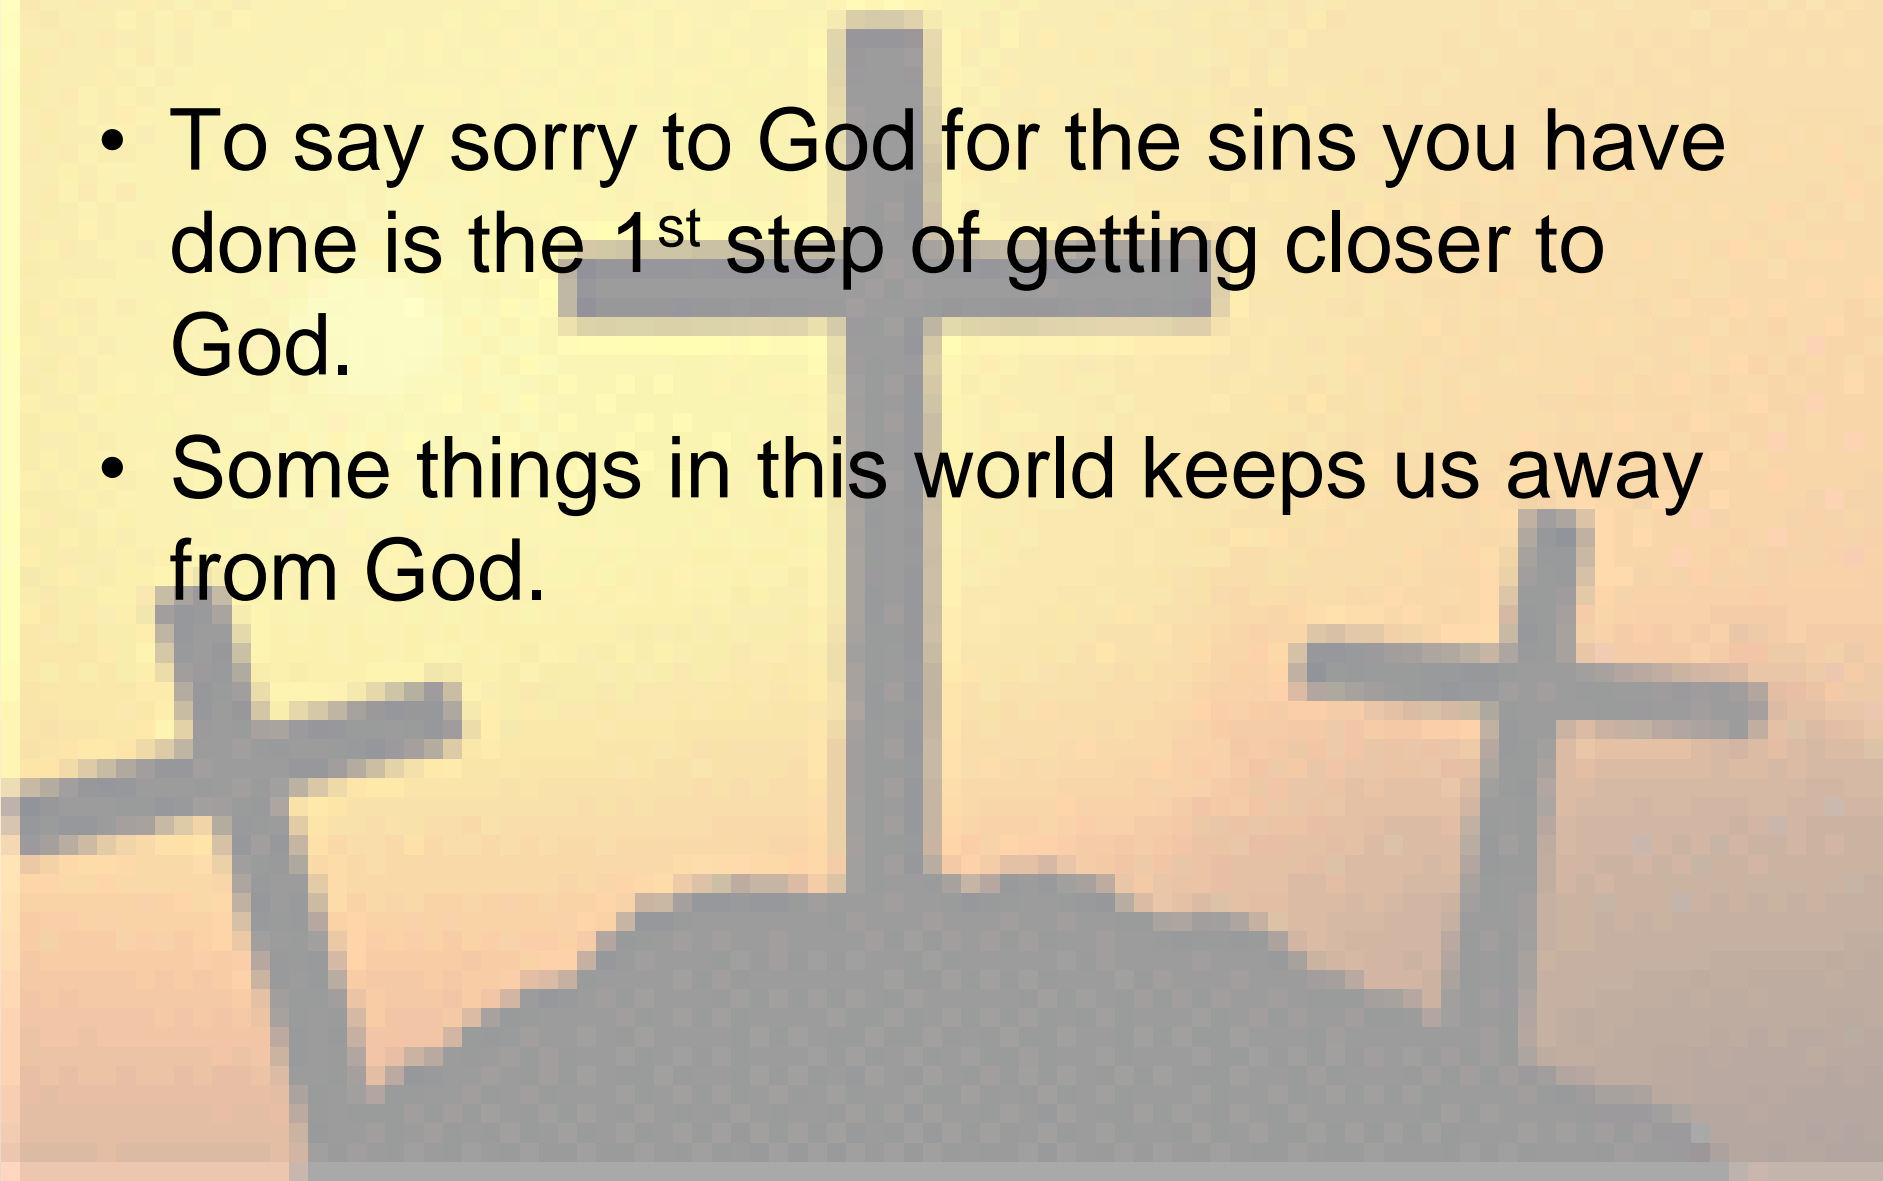

(Psalm 32:1)

Practice this verse
again during the week.

Objective

- To say sorry to God for the sins you have done is the 1st step of getting closer to God.
- Some things in this world keeps us away from God.

Introduction

- Not all the saints began their lives close to God.
- St. Mary of Egypt is one of the people who lived their life as a sinner and she led others to sin with her until she realized how far away she was from God.

Lesson Outline

- There in Palestine lived a holy monk and a priest named Zosimus.
- He served in the Monastery for 53 years, but God told him to leave and go to the Monastery in Jordan.
- He found that the other monks on the 1st Sunday of Lent after Liturgy used to go to the desert and ask for forgiveness from God until palm Sunday.
- It was 430 A.D. Zosimus was 20 days away from the monastery. He sat down to rest and say his Psalms.

- Suddenly something that looked like a human appeared to him.
- He made the sign of the cross and finished his psalms.
- Looking up he saw a white-haired, sun tanned figure , St. Zosimus thought it was a Hermit but the figure would run away every time it would get closer.

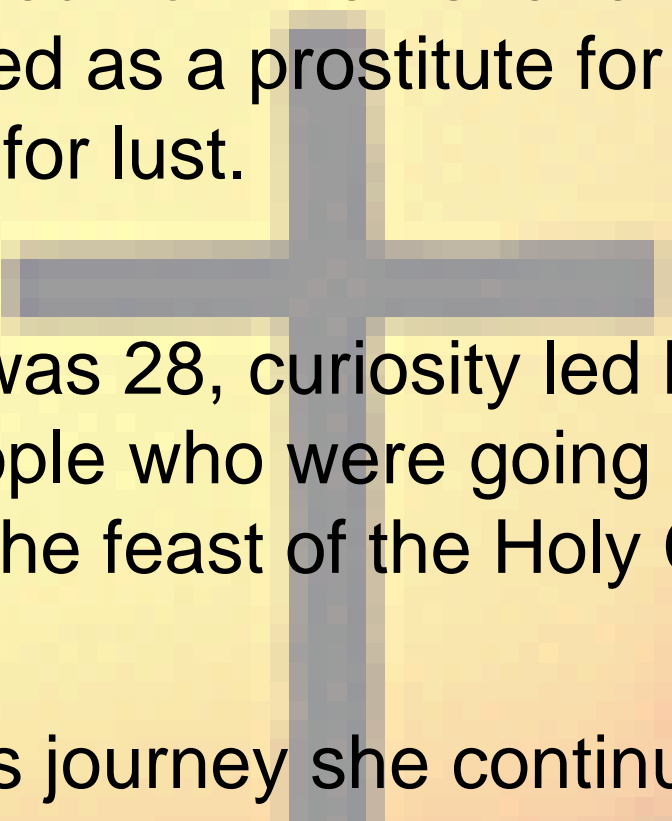

- He shouted “In Gods name don’t run away.”
- As he said this the human figure cried “Father Zosimus, I am a women, please throw me your cloak to support my nakedness, because the years in the desert has worn away my clothes.”
- He was surprised that she knew his name.

- The women began to tell him her strange story.
- “My country is Egypt.”
- “At the age of 12, while my father and mother were still alive, I went without their permission to Alexander.

- She described how then she fell into sin and how she lived as a prostitute for 17 years, not for money, but for lust.
 - When she was 28, curiosity led her to join a band of people who were going to celebrate at Jerusalem the feast of the Holy Cross.
 - Even on this journey she continued her evil ways, corrupting some of the pilgrims.

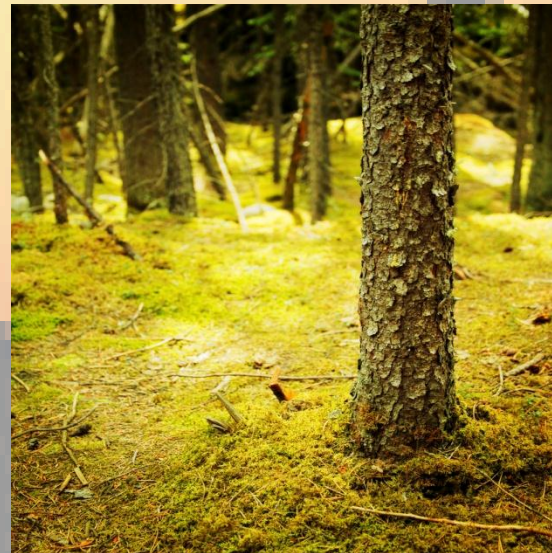

- When she arrived in Jerusalem she tried to enter the church but a strong force invisible held her back. She tried again and again but she was the only one not allowed to enter the church.
- She then went to the outer court and for the first time she realized her sinfulness.
- Raising her eyes to an icon of blessed Virgin Mary she wept and asked her for help vowing that if she could enter the church she would live the life of repentance and go wherever the Holy spirit led her.

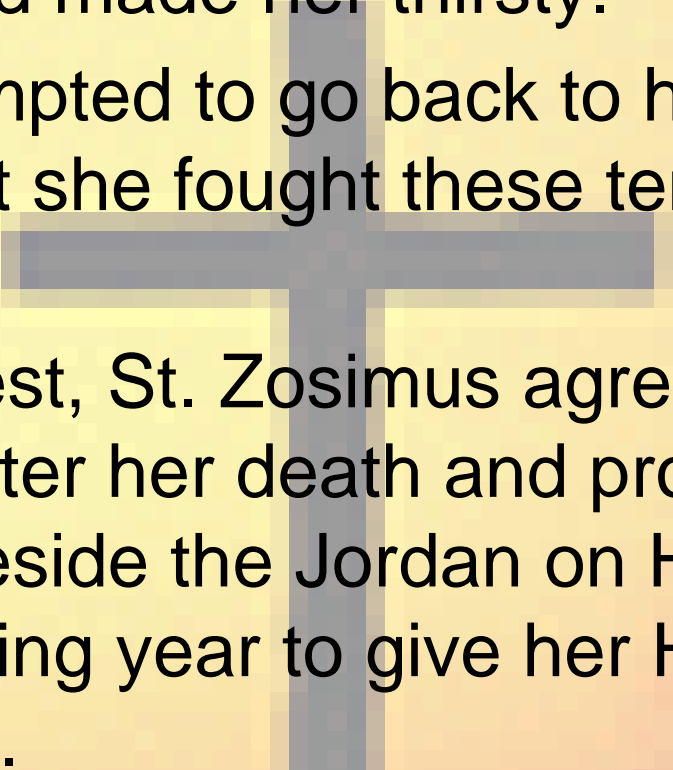

- She prayed and found herself able to enter the church.
- As she was going out of the church, she heard a voice saying. “Go over to the Jordan and you will find rest.” And she set out on her journey.
- At sunset she reached the church of John the Baptist on the bank of the Jordan.

- She spent the whole night weeping.
- In the morning she had Holy Communion, then she went out to the shore and crossed to the other side.
- She found herself to the wilderness.
- She saw no body else and lived on edible plants and dates.

- It was cold winter and hot summers that tortured her body and made her thirsty.
 - She was tempted to go back to her life of luxury in Egypt, but she fought these temptations for 17 years.
 - At her request, St. Zosimus agreed not to tell her story until after her death and promised to meet her again beside the Jordan on Holy Thursday of the following year to give her Holy Communion.

- Next lent : on Holy Thursday Zosimus took the Body and the Blood of the Lord he put some food in a basket and went to the Jordan.
- He saw her coming on the surface of water towards him.
- She asked him to bless her and she received the Holy Communion.

- She thanked him and asked him to come back the following year to the same spot.
- Another year passed: Abba Zosimus went again to the wilderness.
- He reached the spot only to see her dead body lying on the sand.
- Beside her body, on the sand was written:
“Father Zosimus, bury the body of humble Mary.
Render Earth to Earth and pray for me.”

- She died the night of the Lord's Passion, after receiving the Communion.
- Father Zosimus was surprised that she returned to this place the same night after receiving Holy Communion last year, and that her body had not decayed after an entire year.
- At that moment, a lion came from the desert to help him with his claws to dig her grave.
- St. Zosimus went to the monastery and told the story of St. Mary to all the monks.

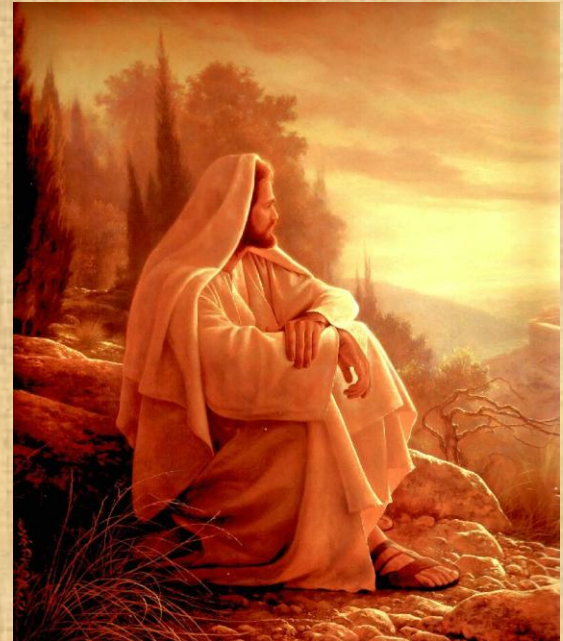

Conclusion

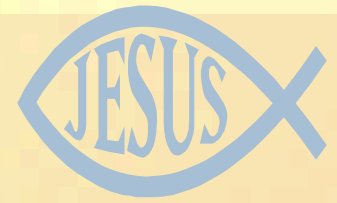

- The Lord waits for us to come to him, and he can show us his love.
- Every sin separates us from God. What is the sin that you are holding on to that is separating you from God – repent and confess. He is giving more time for sinners to repent. Let us make sure nothing would keep us away from God.

The End

Next Week

We will learn about the Prophet Isaiah.

May the love of God the Father and the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you.

All: And with your Spirit.

Through the prayers of our holy Fathers,
Lord Jesus Christ our God, have mercy
on us and save us. Amen.

3 things we all can do to strengthen our relationship with God

1. Read the Holy Bible daily preferably when we get up in the morning. 5 minutes to start.
2. Partake Holy Communion regularly.
3. Remember God throughout the day. We can repeat short prayer such as “Lord Jesus Christ have mercy on me.”

JESUS CHRIST

- “For there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved” (Acts 4:12)

*“And you shall know
the truth, and the truth shall make you free.” John 8:32*

Any question?

Close with prayer.
